Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information request

Thank you for your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), which was received by the Human Tissue Authority (HTA) on 2 May 2018. Your email outlined the following request:

Dear Sir or Madam,

Please send to me any record of evidence that shows electoral fraud will be committed at the May 3rd 2018, United Kingdom local elections.

Regards,

Response

In accordance with s.1 (1) (a) of the Freedom of Information Act (2000), I can confirm that the Human Tissue Authority (HTA) does not hold the information specified within your request.

The HTA is an independent regulator created to regulate the removal, storage and use of human tissue for research, medical treatment, post-mortem examination, education and training, and display in public. We also give approval for organ and bone marrow donations from living people. You can find information about our role and the legislation, which governs our work on our website.

Further information

If you are unhappy with the way the HTA has handled your request for information in this case, you may in the first instance ask us for an internal review by writing to us at the above postal or email address.

If you remain dissatisfied with the handling of your request or complaint, you have the right to appeal directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision, at the address below. There is no charge for making an appeal.
