Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information request

Thank you for your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), which was received by the Human Tissue Authority (HTA) on 8 October 2018. Your email outlined the following request:

To whom it may concern,

I am writing on behalf of The Royal College of Pathology to request the email of your Chair, Nicola Blackwood. This is in regards to her VIP listing at our John Oxford event on 8th November 2018. If you could reply with this info it would be much appreciated.

Many Thanks,
[REDACTED]

Response

I have forwarded your request on to the Executive Assistant to the HTA Chair and Senior Management Team. I would be grateful, if in the first instance, you would direct your invitation, further information about the event and any joining instructions to [REDACTED] for further consideration.

Further information

If you are unhappy with the way the HTA has handled your request for information in this case, you may in the first instance ask us for an internal review by writing to us at the above postal or email address.

If you remain dissatisfied with the handling of your request or complaint, you have the right to appeal directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision, at the address below. There is no charge for making an appeal.
