Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information request

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request, which was received by the Human Tissue Authority (HTA) on Friday 20 January 2023. Your email outlined the following request:

“Previously in an email dated 20-2-2014 you provided a response to a Freedom of Information Act request where you detailed the location, incident classification and summarised description of HTARIs for the 2013 calendar year.

Could you provide me with a similar response for HTARIs that took place in the 2022 calendar year?

Response

The information you have requested can be found on the HTA’s website on the Disclosing information on incidents | Human Tissue Authority \(hta.gov.uk\) page.

The information for the 2022 calendar year is as follows:

Q4 2021/22 PM incident details

Q1 2022/23 PM incident details

Q2 2022/23 PM incident details

Q3 2022/23 PM incident details

If you have any difficulties in accessing this information at the source which I have indicated, please contact me again.

The HTA routinely publishes the information you have requested on the HTA website at the link that has been provided above.

Further information

If you are unhappy with the way the HTA has handled your request for information in this case, you may in the first instance ask us for an internal review by writing to us at the above postal or email address.

If you remain dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to appeal directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision, at the address below. There is no charge for making an appeal.
