Dear [REDACTED],

Freedom of Information Act

Thank you for your email into dated 17 February 2025 for which we gave the case reference number: [REDACTED]. Your email has been handled as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("FOIA").

Your email outlined the following request ("your Request"):

"This is an information request relating to Equality, diversity and Inclusion roles in your organisation.

Please include the following information for each of the following financial years; 2021-22, 2022-23, and 2023-24:

- Total number of EDI staff employed for each financial year
- A breakdown of the staff employed including:
  - The job titles
  - The pay band associated with each role

If it is not possible to provide the information requested due to the information exceeding the cost of compliance limits identified in Section 12, please provide advice and assistance, under the Section 16 obligations of the Act, as to how I can refine my request."

Response

"Thank you for your enquiry. The Human Tissue Authority does not employ dedicated EDI staff."

Further information

We hope you found the above response to your Request clear and helpful. If you are unhappy with the way the HTA has handled your request for information in this case, or if you disagree with how we have interpreted FOIA in answering your Request, you may in the first instance ask us for an internal review by writing to us at the above postal or email address, within two months of this reply, specifying that you would like an Internal Review to be carried out.

Any internal review of the HTA's handling of your information request will be reassessed by staff who were not involved in providing you with this response.

Please remember to quote the case reference number above in any future communications.

If you remain dissatisfied after this internal review, you have the right to appeal directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision, at the address below. There is no charge for making an appeal.
