Dear [REDACTED],

Freedom of Information request

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request, which was received by the Human Tissue Authority (HTA) on Wednesday 4 October 2023. Your email outlined the following request:

“I am sending this request under the Freedom of Information Act.

The Caldas Group, also known as the Caldas Lab, is a research group based at the Cancer Research UK Cambridge Institute (also known as “CRUK CI”) in the University of Cambridge.

I would like to request any correspondence relating to the Caldas Group held by HTA dated between 1st April 2020 - present.

If you need any further information from me in order to deal with my request, please email me at [REDACTED].

If you are encountering practical difficulties with complying with this request, please contact me as soon as possible (in line with your duty under section 16 to advise and assist requesters), so that we can discuss the matter and if necessary I can modify the request.

If you are able to supply some of this information more quickly than other items, please supply each item when you can rather than delay everything until it is all available.

If it is necessary for any reason to redact any information, please redact the minimum necessary and send me the rest of the material, explaining the legal grounds for each redaction.

Please can you acknowledge receipt of this request”.

Response

The HTA has carried out a search on its licensing and records management systems and has not found any correspondence relating to the Caldas Group. We have concluded that we do not hold the information you have requested.

Further information

If you are unhappy with the way the HTA has handled your request for information in this case, you may in the first instance ask us for an internal review by writing to us at the above postal or email address.

If you remain dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to appeal directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision, at the address below. There is no charge for making an appeal.
