Dear [REDACTED],

Freedom of Information Act

Thank you for your email into the Human Tissue Authority (HTA) dated 08 July 2025 for which we gave the case reference number: [REDACTED]. Your email has been handled as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("FOIA").

Your email outlined the following request ("your Request"):

"I'd like to know the following under the Freedom of Information (FOI) Act.

Number of staff within your organisation who were formally disciplined for misconduct over the last three years (broken down by calendar year).

I'd also like to know the outcomes of the disciplinary action e.g.

- 14 staff dismissed
- 12 staff issued a written warning
- 16 staff given a final written warning"

Response

There has been no staff within the HTA that has received disciplinary action over the last 3 years.

Further information

We hope you found the above response to your Request clear and helpful. If you are unhappy with the way the HTA has handled your Request for information in this case, or if you disagree with how we have interpreted FOIA in answering your Request, you may in the first instance ask us for an Internal Review by writing to us at the above postal or email address, within two months of this reply, specifying that you would like an Internal Review to be carried out.

Any Internal Review of the HTA's handling of your information request will be reassessed by staff who were not involved in providing you with this response.

Please remember to quote the case reference number above in any future communications.

If you remain dissatisfied after this internal review, you have the right to appeal directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision, at the address below. There is no charge for making an appeal.
