Dear “[redacted]”

Freedom of Information request

Thank you for your request for information dated 26 March 2014, which we received as follows:

“I would like to know if you hold information regarding the number of bodies that have been received by medical schools in the United Kingdom. If so would you kindly provide this information for each year since 2005?”

Response

The HTA does not hold information on the number of bodies that have been received by medical schools in the United Kingdom. Information on our role in body donation can be found here.

If you are unhappy with the way the HTA has handled your request for information in this case, you may in the first instance ask us for an internal review by writing to us at the above postal or email address.

If you remain dissatisfied with the handling of your request or complaint, you have the right to appeal directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision, at the address below:

Information Commissioner’s Office
