Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information request

Thank you for your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), which was received by the Human Tissue Authority (HTA) on 23 October 2017. Your email outlined the following request:

Please note that the Expenditure over £25k is not available from Jun 2017 in the following weblink

<https://www.hta.gov.uk/workforce-and-expenses-information>

Could you please advise when the file will be available to download on the above web link or if possible can you email me a copy of the missing files?

If you have any queries regarding the above please let me know.

Response

Thank you for advising us that the above expenditure information was missing from our website. I can confirm that the collation of this information has since been completed and is now available on our website via the above link. Please accept my apologies for any inconvenience you have experienced in the meantime due to the absence of this information.

Further information

If you are unhappy with the way the HTA has handled your request for information in this case, you may in the first instance ask us for an internal review by writing to us at the above postal or email address.

If you remain dissatisfied with the handling of your request or complaint, you have the right to appeal directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision, at the address below. There is no charge for making an appeal.
