Dear ██████████

Freedom of Information request

Thank you for your enquiry, which was received by the Human Tissue Authority (HTA) on 14 January 2019. We are treating your enquiry as request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Your email outlined the following request:

Site visit inspection report on compliance with HTA minimum standards of 6 September 2012 on University Hospital of Wales HTA licensing number 12163 reference is made to an earlier report of September 2009.

Is a copy of this earlier report available? Could you please email me a copy?

Response

In accordance with section 21 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, the information that you have requested is exempt from disclosure, as it is easily accessible by other means.

This is because the report was the subject of a previous freedom of information request during February 2010 and can be accessed on the National Archives website via the following hyperlink:

<https://webarchive.nationalarchives.gov.uk/20141105123222/http://www.hta.gov.uk/freedomofinformationanddataprotection/disclosurelog.cfm>

I can also advise that the site visit inspection that you refer to followed an earlier site visit, which was carried out during July 2009. For ease of reference, each of the reports can be accessed directly via the following hyperlinks:
